

SIR WILLIAM BORLASE'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Sir William Borlase's Grammar School is an Outstanding selective-entry, co-educational grammar school located in the centre of the attractive riverside town of Marlow, Buckinghamshire. Heavily oversubscribed, the school has an excellent academic record at both GCSE and A Level. Our highly - motivated students and enthusiastic teachers thrive in our distinctive, vibrant teaching and learning environment. We offer a broad and rich curriculum and have an excellent reputation for our wider opportunities including STEM, Sport, Performing Arts, Creative Writing, Duke of Edinburgh Award, Expeditions and many other extra-curricular activities.

Teacher of Computing

Part or Full Time

Required for September 2019

The popularity and success of Computer Science taught from Year 7 through to A Level has created an exciting opportunity for an additional teacher of this subject. The successful candidate will demonstrate a dynamic and creative approach to teaching, a passion for the subject and the necessary skills and enthusiasm to enhance further the excellent teaching and learning within the department.

The ability to teach within the Design Technology Department would also be welcomed but not essential.
