Appeal against internally assessed marks

By signing below, I am confirming I understand the purpose of the appeal will be to decide whether the process used for the internal assessment conformed to the published requirements of the awarding body's specification and subject-specific associated documents. I also understand that the appeal is a request for a review to check that the mark scheme has been accurately applied. It is not a "re-mark" of the work. I have read the Review of Centre Assessed Marking Policy and understand that as a result of review, marks may increase, decrease or stay the same. If a mark decreases, there is no further appeal that can be made before marks are submitted to the exam boards.

I understand that the review will cost £50 and that this will be loaded onto ParentPay, which must be settled within 48hrs in order for the review to be scheduled.

The charge is levied to cover the administration and staffing costs of the marking review. This is in line with the charge made by exams boards for priority review of marking of written exam papers.

Completed forms must be returned to the Examinations Officer by 3.30pm on the relevant day as published in the school's Review of Centre Assessed Marking Policy. The deadline is final and no late requests can be accepted.
