

Year 7

The Blitz Sisters
by Judith Eagle
Fiction

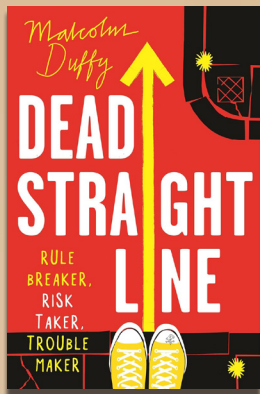

The story of three sisters, their family and friends as they live through WWII. Told from their different points of view about different aspects of the war and how they are affected by it as individuals and as a family. The Blitz Sisters is funny, charming and poignant. Judith Eagle is like Noel Stretfield for a new generation.

Kamizen by William Yamaguchi Dobson
Fiction

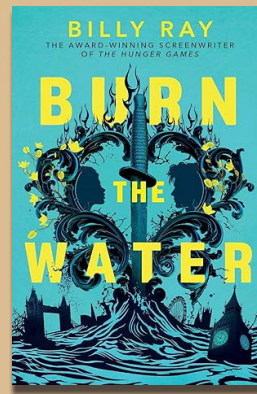

Inspired by the global best-seller 'The Anxious Generation', packed with facts, stories and secrets that tech leaders don't want you to know. This book invites you to step back from your screens and discover how capable, confident and adventurous you can be in the real world.

Year 8-9

Dead Straight Line
by Malcolm Duffy
Fiction

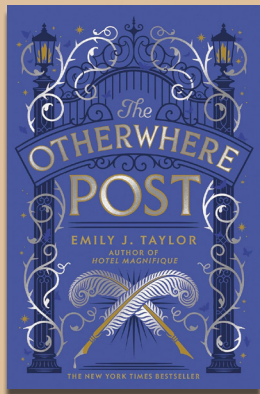

16 year old George makes up the game Dead Straight Line in which you have to get home from wherever you are in a dead straight line. Even if that means going through someone else's garden - whatever it takes. However, what George couldn't have anticipated is the life changing repercussions of a single action in a game gone wrong.

Burn the Water
by Billy Ray
Fiction

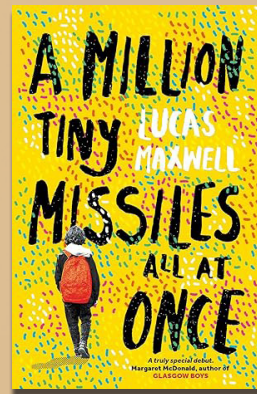

From the award winning screenwriter of The Hunger Games movies comes this exciting epic. It's 2425 and London is underwater. Two houses are at war but when two captains from the opposing sides meet their love is unstoppable. Sound familiar? This is Romeo & Juliet set in a different time and place but perhaps just as powerful.

Year 10-11

The Otherwhere Post
by Emily J Taylor
Fiction

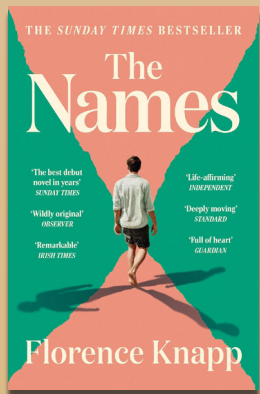

In Leyland there is no magic more powerful than the written word. No one knows this better than Maeve Abernathy. Ancient magic, romance, secrets and hidden identities - all in one brilliant story!

A Million Tiny Missiles all at Once
by Sarah Crossan
Fiction

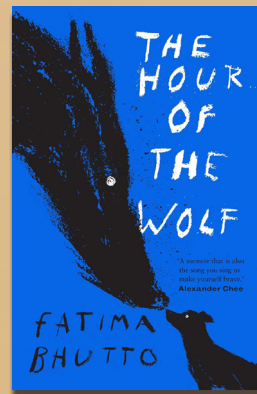

Elias's brain is a swamp of fear and bad things. His brother has become a stranger and his parents are at breaking point. Can Elias find a way to reach the people he loves the most before it's too late?

Year 12-13

The Names
by Florence Knapp
Fiction

The Names is the story of three names, three versions of a life and the infinite possibilities that one decision can spark. 'A once in a generation debut from a major new talent'. This book really shouldn't be missed!

The Hour of the Wolf
by Fatima Bhutto
Non-fiction

This is the story of how Fatima frees herself from a man's manipulative charm. It's a tale that crosses continents, travels into myth, literature, astronomy and art. By her side at all times is Coco: a small, furiously loyal Jack Russell terrier.
