Dear Parents and Carers,

Year 10(11) Theatre Trip to An Inspector Calls - Aylesbury Waterside 7 October 2027

Your child will be studying J B Priestly's An Inspector Calls for their English Literature GCSE. Although attending a performance of the play is not required for the GCSE, to complement their studies we are organising a trip to see Stephen Daldry's classic production at the Aylesbury Waterside Theatre on Thursday 7 October 2027 (when your child will be in Year 11). This is an opportunity for the students to see a play they are studying brought to life on the stage, which is a valuable addition to their learning. I appreciate that this is a long way in advance, but we need to book now in order to be able to secure tickets for what is a very popular show.

We will leave school by coach at 5.45pm, the performance starts at 7.30pm and is scheduled to end at 9.20pm so we expect to be back in Marlow around 10.30pm.

The cost of the trip is £32 including ticket, insurance and coach transport to and from Aylesbury. If you wish your child to attend, please log onto Parentpay using your username and password to pay by Sunday 22 November 2026. Tickets will not be available after this deadline, so early action is advised. If you need a copy of your activation details or are unable to access Parentpay, please email parentpay@swbgs.com. In line with the school's charging policy, parents are reminded that school charity funds exist to assist families whose financial circumstances would otherwise prevent their child from participating. Application must be made in writing to bursar@swbgs.com, outlining the reasons why support is required, as soon as possible and at the latest by the deadline.

This is a Category B trip, as defined by the school's Trips and Visits policy. As such, payment for the trip on ParentPay is taken as confirmation of consent for your child to attend and that the contact and medical details that the school has on record for you are up-to-date and correct.

Yours faithfully
Mr J Lofthouse
Literacy Co-ordinator
